Clayton County CVB Hires New Director of Marketing & Communications

Jonesboro, Ga. - The Clayton County Convention & Visitors Bureau is proud to announce the hiring of Rebekah Cline as the new Director of Marketing & Communications. Cline will manage all marketing, advertising and public relations efforts for the Clayton County Convention & Visitors Bureau.

A graduate of Georgia College & State University, Cline offers a background in Mass Communication with a concentration in Public Relations. Most recently, Cline served over four years as Marketing Director for the Lawrenceville Tourism & Trade Association. In addition, Cline serves on the board of directors for the Atlanta Metro Travel Association and has been certified as a Tourism Marketing Professional (TMP) by the Southeast Tourism Society.

"We are excited to have hired Rebekah because of her knowledge not only of the hospitality industry, but also because she knows metro Atlanta and the tourism assets on the Southside," said Patrick Duncan, president and CEO of the Clayton County Convention & Visitors Bureau. Cline is from Fayetteville, Ga. and is a graduate of Fayette County High School.

" From the Road to Tara Museum to the Atlanta State Farmers Market to Spivey Hall, I look forward to promoting each of the treasures I've personally come to enjoy in Clayton County," says Cline.

The Clayton County Convention & Visitors Bureau is the official tourism marketing agency for Clayton County. The CVB advertises and promotes the area to bring business to hotels, attractions, historical sites and meeting facilities within Clayton County and its neighboring communities.
