Lawrenceville Announces 2010 Summer Concert Line-Up

Lawrenceville, GA – The Lawrenceville Tourism and Trade Association (LTTA) continues its seventh season with its “Moonlight & Music” summer concert series on the lawn of the Gwinnett Historic Courthouse.

Held on the fourth Friday from May through September at 8 p.m., 2010’s season line-up includes a head bopping and toe tapping artist roster with infectious rhythms and beats. From Memphis soul to classic rock covers to folk, “Moonlight & Music” will entertain the entire family with its diverse genre selection.

Fri., May 28th – Eric Culberson Blues Band

Fri., June 25th – Abbey Road LIVE

Fri., July 23rd – Grains of Sand

Fri., August 27th – Shawn Mullins

Fri., September 24th – Sons of Sailors

The concerts are FREE outdoor lawn events but reserved VIP seating for tables of six can be purchased for only $65 by check or $67 by credit card by contacting the Lawrenceville Visitors Center at 678.226.2639. A seating chart is available for viewing prior to purchasing tickets by going to the LTTA website at www.visitlawrenceville.com. A limited number of reserved tables are available for each show.

In a effort to continue the Moonlight & Music Series as Lawrenceville’s (and even Gwinnett’s) own mini-Chastain Park, attendees are encouraged to bring a picnic dinner or visit one of the restaurants on the downtown square for catering or take-out packages.

For more information about the “Moonlight & Music” Concert Series, visit www.visitlawrenceville.com or contact Rebekah Cline at Rebekah@visitlawrenceville.com or 678.226.2639.

The Lawrenceville Tourism & Trade Association is Lawrenceville, Georgia's Destination Marketing Organization (DMO) appointed by the city's Downtown Development

Authority and sanctioned by the City of Lawrenceville with a mission to promote tourism, business development, and civic life in the city of Lawrenceville.
