FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
April 1, 2009

Jan Jones Scheduled to Speak at the Alpharetta Historical Society
April 16, 2009 at 7:30 p.m. at the Mansell House

The Alpharetta Historical Society is a non-profit 501(c) (3) organization governed by the State of Georgia. It operates under a Board of Trustees consisting of elected trustees, officers, and standing committee chairpersons.

In 2009, the general membership meetings are usually held on the 3rd Thursday of each month at 7:30pm at the Mansell House on Old Milton Parkway. April's speaker is Representative Jan Jones. She will be talking to the Alpharetta Historical Society about the status of Milton County.

Representative Jan Jones was voted as the first female Majority Whip in GA in November 2008. This term will mark the second time that Representative Jones has served on the Environmental and Natural Resources Committee. Chairman Jones has worked relentlessly to fight for better educational standards and practices. She was born in Warner Robins and later attended the University of Georgia where she earned her Bachelor's Degree in Journalism and English. At Georgia State University, she achieved an MBA in Finance.

Please join us for lots of history, fun, and fellowship. If you are not a member of the AHS, you are welcome to attend our general meetings. If you like our organization, we invite you to join us and become a member.
