Ed Forte
September Speaker for the Alpharetta Historical Society

The Alpharetta Historical Society (AHS) is a non-profit 501(c) (3) organization governed by the State of Georgia. It operates under a Board of Trustees consisting of elected trustees, officers, and standing committee chairpersons.

The Alpharetta Historical Society invites you to attend the General Meeting, on Thursday, September 17, 2009, at the Mansell House at 7:30 p.m.

Ed Forte, teacher at Milton High School, is passionate about history and will be the presenting speaker at the meeting. As he presents information, Forte will be dressed in Revolutionary Period clothing and accompanied by an equipment display. He will talk about war camps and the women who followed the camps to take care of the men who were fighting.

The motto for the Alpharetta Historical Society is to “Preserve the Past, in the Present, for the Future”, helping inspire families, young and old, to find their passion through the life of yesteryear by maintaining and sharing its collections, preservation and dissemination of accurate historical information through activities and workshops.

Please join us September 17 for wonderful evening of learning about history and fellowship. Whether or not you are a member of the AHS, you are welcome to attend our gatherings. For more information about the Alpharetta Historical Society and its activities, call 770-475-4663 or visit us on the Web site at www.ahsga.org. If you would like to become a member, contact Frank and Louise Munkel at lfmunkel@gmail.com or 770-667-7380.
