Alpharetta CVB and Welcome Center Invite Public to Open House

The Alpharetta Convention and Visitors Bureau (CVB) and Welcome Center invite the public to stop by between 2-6 p.m. on Wednesday, December 9, to explore the organization's new office space at Park Plaza, 178 South Main Street, Suite 200, Alpharetta, Georgia 30009, meet and greet the staff and learn about the complimentary services provided by the CVB and Welcome Center. Complimentary drinks and desserts will be served. And, everyone who stops by will have a chance to win major giveaways from Alpharetta hotels.

"We are very excited about our new location in downtown Alpharetta and look forward to continuing to provide exceptional services to market and promote Alpharetta as a premier tourism destination," says Janet Rodgers, President and CEO of the Alpharetta CVB.

"We are excited about our new location and offices. By combining our resources and location of the Alpharetta CVB and Welcome Center offices, it helps showcase our great city and offers a unique perspective to all that Alpharetta has to offer both visitors and citizens," adds Mark Spanka, General Manager of the Atlanta Marriott Alpharetta and Chairman of the Alpharetta CVB Board of Directors.
