Alpharetta Historical Society Installs Board for 2009-2010

The Alpharetta Historical Society is a non-profit 501(c) (3) organization governed by the State of Georgia. It operates under a Board of Trustees consisting of elected trustees, officers, and standing committee chairpersons.

At the Annual Alpharetta Historical Society's dessert social on Sunday, June 14, 2009, at the Mansell House, the 2009-2010 Board members were installed. Before installing the new board, Mayor Arthur Letchas spoke to the group about the new Alpharetta City Center project and its status. He also thanked the Alpharetta Historical Society for preserving Alpharetta's history and how important that job is to the city of Alpharetta and its residents. Norm Broadwell and Billy Bates presented a picture of the Milton County Courthouse, in a frame that was custom made by Billy Bates, to Mayor Letchas for speaking to the Alpharetta Historical Society members.

Norm Broadwell passed the gavel to Bonnie Steadman the new President of the Historical Society for the next year. But before the gavel was passed, Norm thanked all the officers, trustees, and chairs for taking responsibility of the tasks assigned over the past year. New President of the AHS, Bonnie Steadman, accepted the gavel and thanked all the people who have volunteered over the past year and presented them with flowers.

The new Board was installed by Mayor Arthur Letchas. The Board present included: Bonnie Steadman (President); Rebecca Schindler (Vice President); Janice Talluto (Secretary); Ellon Jones (Treasurer); Betty Payton (Finance); Martine Broadwell (Heritage); Vesta Smith (Programs); and Janet Rodgers (Publicity); Norman Broadwell (Trustee); Phil Monzo (Trustee) and Marjean Birt (Trustee). Board members not present included: Connie Mashburn (Research and Archives); Kim Dodson (Trustee); Chestene Carter (Trustee); Frank and Louise Munkel (Membership).
