Take A Ride Through History on the Historic Marietta Trolley

Marietta, GA – Clang, Clang, Clang went the Trolley! That's what Marietta residents will hear when the Historic Marietta Trolley rolls out in April. The trolley, the only regularly scheduled tour trolley in the Atlanta Metro area, will explore this historic city from the vibrant downtown square, past grand antebellum homes to the battlefield at Kennesaw Mountain. The tour, which takes approximately one hour, will highlight the Marietta Square, the Confederate & National Cemeteries, historic homes on Cherokee Street, Church Street & Kennesaw Avenue, Kennesaw Mountain National Battlefield Park, historic homes on Whitlock Avenue and St. James Episcopal Cemetery. Knowledgeable tour guides will narrate your "time travel" into the past.

The trolley, which is named the Uncle Ruban in honor of the first streetcar to run between Marietta & Atlanta, will offer tours on Thursday, Friday, Saturday & Sunday. Tickets may be purchased at the Historic Marietta Trolley Company, 107 Church Street or at the Marietta Welcome Center, 4 Depot Street. The trolley will pick up passengers at both locations. Private charters are available for group tours, weddings, birthdays, corporate outings and special events.
