Step Back in Time with Alpharetta's Old Milton Country Fair

ALPHARETTA, GA – Make plans to attend an old-fashioned, fun-filled celebration at the Old Milton Country Fair, presented for the second year through a partnership between the Alpharetta Lions Club and City of Alpharetta, on Saturday and Sunday, September 12-13, from 10 a.m. - 5p.m. This foot stompin', crowd pleasin' celebration is a stress-free two-day event that will bring the whole family back to the basics of life.

Honoring Old Milton County and the way life used to be when communities came together to celebrate and enjoy each other's company, you'll find Southern barbecue, old time music and dancing, historical demonstrations, vintage collections, and an antique and classic car, truck, wagon, and a tractor show at the fair this year, which will take place at the Historic Log Cabin on the Old Milton High School grounds (Milton Center, 86 School Drive, Alpharetta, GA 30009) in downtown Alpharetta. Admission and parking are free to the public. Parking is available at Milton Center, Alpharetta City Hall and Police Athletic League Building.

Plan to stay the entire weekend to enjoy all of the festivities. Alpharetta offers 23 upscale and modern hotels, 150 dining options, seven unique shopping districts, and an abundance of family-friendly entertainment. Visit www.awesomealpharetta.com for more information, including special package hotel rates.

The Old Milton Country Fair is a reminder of the days when families encouraged one another to learn about the cultures that shaped our nation from the 1700s to the 1980s. A variety of demonstrations at this year's Fair will span a range of topics including farming, gardening, arts, crafts, fashion, music and dance, providing a renewing, refreshing, inspiring and encouraging glimpse into yesteryear.
